SUMMER IS ARTrageous at the NTC ARTS & CULTURE DISTRICT in Liberty Station Dozens of Arts & Culture Exhibits, Activities and Events Make Summer Sizzle!

May 1, 2015 – SAN DIEGO – School may be out in June, but things won't slow down at NTC Arts & Culture District – San Diego's fast growing arts and culture district in Liberty Station. There are dozens of exhibits, classes, workshops, free activities and Summer Camps for all ages and interests throughout the 28-acre campus at the former Naval Training Center in Point Loma.

With plenty of free parking and outdoor space to enjoy a run, picnic or simply a rest, NTC @ Liberty Station is your new summer destination for ARTrageous fun.

To make planning easy, NTC has compiled a complete list and posted online at <http://www.ntclibertystation.com/SummerisARTrageous.html>

ABOUT NTC AT LIBERTY STATION AND THE NTC FOUNDATION

NTC at Liberty Station is San Diego's largest Arts & Cultural District located in historic buildings at the former Naval Training Center in the new Liberty Station neighborhood. With 28 park-like acres and 16 of its 26 buildings complete, NTC is home to nearly 80 museums and galleries, artist studios, dance companies, educational groups, multidisciplinary arts, creative retail and other organizations that showcase San Diego's creative community and provide innovative experiences for the public. NTC is under the stewardship of the not-for-profit NTC Foundation: www.ntclibrestation.com.

The NTC Foundation was established in 2000 by the City of San Diego as a 501(c)3 nonprofit foundation to enrich the lives of San Diegans by renovating 26 historic buildings at the former Naval Training Center to create, facilitate and operate a broad-based complex focused on experiencing the arts, culture, and creativity that are the hallmark of the San Diego region.
